Consumption Experts Frown On Betty

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's appointment of former refrigerator saleswoman Betty Furness as his consumer affairs adviser has drawn a freezer-like chill from consumer groups and congressmen active in consumer affairs.

Most either have declined direct comment or expressed the hope that once Miss Furness assumes her duties and learns more about consumer problems she will become an effective pro-consumer voice.

Miss Furness, known best for opening refrigerator doors on television commercials, was named to the $26,000-a-year job March 4.

She succeeds Mrs. Esther Peterson, who retains her other job as assistant secretary of labor.

"We were a little surprised that the President picked somebody with no experience in this area," said Sarah Newman, executive director of the National Consumers League. "My hope is that she will be able to pick up where Mrs. Peterson left off."

Her familiarity to housewives was seen by some observers as an asset, however — and perhaps of political help for Johnson.

"I am disappointed in the appointment of a television personality," began a letter to the President from Dean Helen G. Canover of Cornell University's College of Home Economics. She formerly was head of the National Consumer Advisory Council.

The reaction in Congress was similar. Rep. Benjamin S. Rosenthal, D-N.Y., head of a special government operations inquiry into consumer representation, took to the House floor with a one-minute speech praising Mrs. Peterson and ignoring Miss Furness. He later declined comment on Miss Furness' appointment.

Senate Traces $150,000 Put In Dodd's Accounts

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate ethics committee probe of Sen. Thomas J. Dodd turns today to exploring the motives behind fund-raising activities the Connecticut Democrat says put at least $150,000 into his personal bank accounts.

The hearings got off to a fast start Monday with the bipartisan committee and Dodd stipulating in a 162-page document to a mass of facts concerning fund-raising activities in his behalf between 1961 and 1965.

In addition to campaign contributions for Dodd's 1964 re-election race, there were a series of testimonial events. Dodd

WASHINGTON (AP) — Here are facts on which Sen. Thomas J. Dodd and the Senate ethics committee investigating his finances have agreed:

Total raised — $456,700 in testimonial dinners and other fund-raising activities in Dodd's behalf between 1961 and 1965.

Dodd's bank accounts — About $150,000 eventually was transferred to bank accounts held by Dodd and his wife in Washington and New York.

Campaign bank accounts — Some funds in special accounts containing receipts of fund-raising activities were used to pay for such items as liquor bills, football tickets, hotel and motel charges, and parking tickets.

contents the proceeds from these were tax-free gifts he could legitimately use as he saw fit.

Figures in the stipulation indicated that $456,700 was raised altogether and that Dodd deposited at least $150,000 of it in his own bank accounts.

Sen. John Stennis, D-Miss., told reporters that "due to the sweeping nature of the stipulation," the hearings were moving rather rapidly and might be completed before Congress starts an Easter recess late next week.

Johnson speaker — With so many facts agreed to, Stennis said testimony will deal largely with explanations and the motives that prompted the testimonial dinners and other fund-raising events.

President Johnson, when he was vice president, was the

Garrison Probe Shaw Hearing Is Under Guard

JUDGE BERNARD J. BAGERT, who crushed bottle caps between his fingers, will preside today over the first court hearing in New Orleans district attorney's probe into a conspiracy to assassinate President Kennedy. Bagert, 54, will decide whether a jury shall hear the case against Clay L. Shaw who is accused by the district attorney of conspiracy in the murder of President Kennedy. (AP Wirephoto)

Defense Fights Action Before 3 Judge Panel

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — A heavy guard was ordered today for the legal showdown in Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison's controversial Kennedy assassination probe.

Twenty sheriff's deputies were assigned to watch over the small Criminal District courtroom while state and defense lawyers argue whether retired executive Clay L. Shaw should go to trial.

Garrison accused Shaw, 54, former managing director of the International Trade Mart here, of conspiring with Lee Harvey Oswald and others to kill President John F. Kennedy.

The Warren Commission report named Oswald, a former New Orleans resident, as the killer — and said there was no credible evidence that a conspiracy was involved.

The president was killed in Dallas Nov. 22, 1963. Whether there is enough evidence to warrant formal charge and trial for Shaw was the only matter before the preliminary hearing. Shaw called Garrison's accusations "fantastic."

On $10,000 bond Under Louisiana law, Shaw was booked — but not formally charged — with conspiracy to murder the president. He was freed on $10,000 bond.

The preliminary hearing was then called by Garrison, a rare move in Louisiana legal procedure. An equally rare three-judge panel was set up to preside.

The district attorney has kept his case secret. But U.S. Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark, in Washington, said he knows what it involves and does not consider the case valid.

Clark said Shaw, during the exhaustive investigation which followed the assassination, was checked out by the FBI and cleared. He declined to say why Shaw was investigated.

Shaw's three defense lawyers first accepted the preliminary hearing. Then they switched tactics and fought it vigorously, losing at every step.

Defense Overruled — The three-judge panel overruled a defense motion Monday to have a single judge preside over the hearing — rejecting the argument that the panel was tantamount to being tried by a jury, and that it was unprecedented in law and unauthorized.

After disposing of defense motions, the panel rescinded a widely ignored rule which it had imposed on press coverage last week forbidding the reporting of anything except what occurred in open court.

Garrison contends that Shaw, Oswald, David W. Ferrie and others met in Ferrie's apartment here in September 1963, and plotted "how they would kill John F. Kennedy." Garrison said a confidential informant was present at the meeting. The informant's story, he added, stood up under questioning while the subject was under the influence of sodium pentothal — or "truth serum."

To Produce Informant — When Shaw's lawyers, at a hearing last week, demanded that the unnamed informant be produced, Judge Bernard Bagert said he would have to rule

Minnie Pearl Is Sued For $100,000

CADILLAC (AP) — A country and western singer and her agent are to appear at a preliminary hearing to face charges of breach of contract.

The Kalaska County Trout Festival Corp. filed suit against Minnie Pearl and her agent, Al Slaggett, charging that the singer failed to make a scheduled appearance at the festival last April.

The festival corporation's attorney, Edward Ten Houten, says he is asking for $100,000, on the grounds that the singer's failure to appear severely damaged the festival's reputation.

The preliminary hearing has been set for March 30, in Saginaw.

LBJ Asks Tax Break To Aid Business Again

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Johnson administration asks a House committee today to restore some tax breaks for business — but now is expected to wait another two months before submitting its formal request for an income tax increase.

Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler carries the business tax message to the House Ways and Means Committee, where he also faces the certainty of questions about the proposed 6 per cent surtax on income levies.

Johnson, Fowler and others have insisted they still intend to ask for income taxes to be increased at midyear.

The administration meanwhile wants immediate restoration of the investment tax credit, by which businesses can recover 7 per cent of their spending on equipment, and of favorable depreciation rules for profit-making buildings.

Congress Willing — Congress reluctantly suspended the investment credit and depreciation rules last year. From both parties have come indications of willingness to restore them.

The Ways and Means Committee hopes to confine its hearings to today. The House leadership already has tentatively scheduled the bill for floor action Thursday.

Administration sources say the two-month delay on submitting the surtax request stems mainly from hints dropped by the Ways and Means Committee that it can't possibly hold hearings on the surtax until June. Some members of Congress have been cool to the planned tax increase.

But the longer wait will also permit the administration to make any last-minute changes in the proposal to compensate for any changing economic conditions.

Economy On Track — Administration sources insist, however, that the economy is plodding along generally on the track they charted in the January economic report to Congress.

The tax plan has been outlined to Congress by the administration but no specific legislation has yet been sent to Capitol Hill.

Asked if the administration were holding off submission of a formal bill to permit any last-minute changes in the original plan, one top government source replied: "That's part of it."

Michigan Woman Dies In African Crash Into Sea

EAST LONDON, South Africa (AP) — The airliner which U.S. Sen. Robert F. Kennedy chartered during his visit to South Africa crashed into the Indian Ocean Monday night, apparently killing all 25 persons aboard. An American woman was reported among the victims.

It was the worst air crash in South African history.

Col. C.R. Botha, the divisional police commissioner, denied a report that 21 bodies had been washed ashore during the night. He said only a few pieces of wreckage had been found and because of strong currents in the area, a wide stretch of the coast was being searched.

The South African Press Association said the American woman passenger was Audrey Rosenthal, a doctor of philosophy in history from the University of California who was also a graduate of the University of Michigan.

Her address was given as in care of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Faren of Grand Rapids, Mich.

The news agency said she was between 27 and 30, had been working in London for more than two years as a consultant on teaching aids, and was making a six-week tour of South Africa to set information about conditions and life in the country.

The report said Miss Rosenthal, after a six-day stay in Port Elizabeth, had planned to leave by an earlier plane but waited for the ill-fated airliner.

Today's Chuckle — Take-home pay might best be described as a nineteenth century custom, now outmoded by tax laws.

Building Schedule 3 Weeks Behind — GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Contractors for a $10.5 million city-county building project in Vandenberg Center are pushing to get back on schedule. They fell behind three weeks when they encountered unstable underground rock and soil strata. The schedule calls for a May 1 starting date for erection of structural steel.

News In Brief

WASHINGTON — Another portrait of the President has been offered for his approval and the word is that he thinks it's all right. The painting was one of 15,000 submitted in the Omaha World-Herald's "Paint the President" contest.

DETROIT — If the UAW wins a guaranteed annual income, it isn't likely that everyone will get it from the day he starts work. Technical workers in the Union adopted a resolution proposing "a guaranteed structure based on service with fixed minimum upon acquiring seniority."

NEW YORK — A boycott by Negro and white parents kept more than 1,000 children out of an elementary school in Harlem. The parents demand a say in the selection of a new principal next September.

DETROIT — Wayne County's prosecutor is unable to find a Michigan law against "handbill hate." Therefore he released teenagers who admitted printing and distributing anti-Jewish hate literature.

WASHINGTON — The Army says it is still having problems with theft of supplies in Vietnam. Improved handling methods are helping but the Army officials are still not satisfied.

LANSING — A modern, automatic dial telephone system has been approved for isolated Drummond Island by the State Public Service Commission. The Drummond Island Telephone Co. has been given permission to sell 10,000 shares of $10 par value stock to finance the new system.

Detroit Crime Is Runaway

DETROIT (AP) — "I wish I could disagree with him, but I can't."

With that, Police Commissioner Ray Girardin seconded a report of runaway crime figures. The report came from Dean Joseph Lohman of the University of California school of criminology.

He told Mayor Jerome Cavanagh's crime conference that crime figures "are approaching the point where law and order might break down."

Cavanagh's much-delayed conference, attended by only about 700 of the 20,000 invited, drew the ire of about 15 grocers representing the Associated Food Dealers of Detroit.

The group, wearing white aprons, picketed the conference to dramatize their criticism of the city's lack of success in curbing holdups of small grocery stores.

Cavanagh had opened the two-day conference Friday night by saying police couldn't solve the problem with a "get tough" attitude.

Bus Drivers Are Ready To Strike

LANSING (AP)—Lansing bus drivers, who provide transportation for about 4,500 persons a day, have voted to strike at midnight tonight, if necessary, to back up contract demands.

At issue is the drivers' demand for a nine-month contract, rather than the one-year contract proposed by Lansing Suburban Lines, Inc.

James L. Cramer, president of Amalgamated Transit Union Local 1038, said the two sides already have agreed on an 11-cent-an-hour plus cost of living increase for bus drivers now making $2.10 an hour.

He said the union has 36 members, 26 drivers and 10 garage employees.

A two-year contract expired March 5. The company asked for another two-year pact, then offered a one-year contract.

"They want a nine-month contract. I am not going to negotiate it," said Cary Buchanan, bus company manager. "We won't be any better off come November. It's just a stop-gap situation."

Alperovitz Is Critical

Mental Health Staff Just 'Conversation'

Difficulties in developing and maintaining local mental health services under Act 34 were discussed in detail at a meeting in Marquette Saturday between Upper Peninsula community mental health leaders and representatives of the State Department of Mental Health.

Dr. V. A. Stehman, Lansing, acting director of the department, presided over the day-long meeting at Northern Michigan University, Marquette.

It was the first of four such regional conferences to be conducted in the state to "review our program development and progress to date, identify problem areas and take steps to resolve issues in conflict," Dr. Stehman said.

Established in 1963, Act 34 provides that a county or group of counties may create a mental health board and establish certain prescribed mental health programs within its area of jurisdiction. The boards are entities of county government. The programs they administer are financed by state (75 per cent) and county (25 per cent) funds.

Local Tie-In
Dr. Stehman listed some areas of concern in the administration of Act 34 and announced that his department is "in the process of installing a community data system that will provide local program directors and the central office with necessary data for program planning and evaluation."

Dr. Philip B. Smith, Lansing, assistant director of the department, stressed "the necessity of the interlocking of mental health action with other community action and the coordination of mental health programming with general human services programming."

They are interdependent, just as state and local mental health services are interdependent. In neither case should parallel services be developed. They must be joined at some point to provide continuity of service and care.

"All of this can be defeated if we compete over territory or misdirect our efforts and attention to simply establishing the area of our authority and branding it."

Low Population Problem
Dr. Smith announced a special effort by the department to aid low population areas. "In recognition of the difficulty of establishing service for sparsely populated regions such as exist in some parts of the Upper Peninsula and the northern Lower Peninsula," he said, "we have made a budget request for such regions which will not require initial local money. We do not know at this time whether such funds will be appropriated."

Representatives of the various community mental health programs in the Upper Peninsula commented on specific problems in their areas.

Dr. David R. Wall, Marquette, psychiatric director, Alger-Marquette Community

Leo Alperovitz

Mental Health Services—More guidance from the state department needed, including help in determining needs. Central planning of program development and funding in the administrative direction needed. How can we spread services enough to give at least some service to the thinly populated areas? (One suggestion for meeting the latter problem was the use of traveling teams of mental health workers.)

Delta Comment
Leo Alperovitz, Escanaba, Delta County Community Mental Health Services Board—Staffing is a problem. "We have lip service regarding remote and thinly populated geographical areas, but when funding is considered, this is ignored."

Mrs. Irene Pavaglio, Iron Mountain, chairman, Dickinson-Iron Community Mental Health Board—"We had a psychiatrist director for our clinic for a year and then we didn't have one. What does a clinic do without a director? How responsible is the board for administration of day care centers? What is our responsibility for the retarded who are discharged from Newberry State Hospital? What is the proper salary for a clinic director? What are the standards to look for in interviewing a psychiatrist?"

Dr. Gordon A. Eadie, Newberry, director of the Four County Health Department—More community health services needed, particularly in handling alcoholism and family counseling. Consideration should be given to establishing traveling teams.

Mental Hospital
James O'Brien, Houghton, Copper Country Mental Health Center—He discussed establishment of the clinic that serves Houghton, Baraga, Keweenaw and Ontonagon Counties and said it took three years for the board to assemble a complete staff. Among areas of concern he listed the relationship between the board and the professional staff. O'Brien said a local hospital in his area is "interested in building a psychiatric wing in the future." The only such facility now in existence in the Upper Peninsula is the 14-bed unit at St. Marys Hospital in Marquette.

James Dompliere, Negaunee, chairman of the Alger-Marquette Community Mental Health Services Board, explained that Marquette County was approaching $60,000 in fees annually in patient care at Newberry State Hospital when an adult mental health unit was established. Since then the fees have been reduced by about $7,500, which is the amount being funded by the county toward the unit. Thus, although the county hasn't saved money as a result of the unit, more mental health services are being provided for residents of the county.

Tax Reform Plea
Those attending the meeting heard an appeal by State Rep. Charles H. Varnum (R-Manistique) for passage of a state income tax. If tax reform is not enacted, he said, some departments—including mental health—will have to take cuts of 15 per cent in their budgets. "Many legislators feel the Governor's program (calling for a two and a half per cent personal income tax) is inadequate," Varnum said. "I personally feel the two and a half per cent increase is not sufficient for our purposes."

He urged those present to write their representatives in the Legislature indicating their support for tax reform.

Time Bill Is Up Today In House

LANSING (AP)—The House denied its consent Monday to sending an implied consent bill to the Judiciary Committee—after some members implied the committee would kill the bill.

Then the whole question of implied consent—involving chemical tests on suspected drunken drivers—was laid over until Wednesday.

Up for consideration again today, meanwhile, was the question of whether Michigan should go on Daylight Savings Time for six months each year.

The House Monday night easily passed noncontroversial measures expanding a probate judge's ability to refer defendants to mental hospitals and regulating possession and sale of game pelts and plumage.

One of the bills passed and sent to the Senate would allow a licensed taxidermist to buy and sell parts of game birds and animals without a fur dealer's license. It would boost the annual license fee for taxidermists from $5 to $15.

Another would allow licensed fur dealers to buy and sell hides, skin and plumage of game animals and birds.

A third bill permits a judge to commit a defendant to a mental hospital if he finds "It is essential and necessary for the safety of the person and the safety of the public."

Shell Aids Suomi On Accreditation

HANCOCK—Suomi College has received a $1,500 gift from Shell Companies Foundation, Inc., to help the institution take a step toward regional accreditation. This step is the self-study. The completion of the self-study is required before it can be considered a candidate for fully accredited status. The donation is intended to help pay out-of-pocket costs arising in connection with the self-study, such as those for consultants, printing, and special meetings.

"We believe the new trustees, as did the former ones, will quickly warm to the prospect of a small, struggling, private college coming into its own with a dynamic program of advance," said Dr. Jalkanen.

Postal Center To Be Expanded

WASHINGTON — The Iron Mountain Postoffice—principal gateway for most Upper Peninsula mail—will be greatly expanded and modernized, Senator Philip A. Hart confirmed today.

"Original remodeling plans—dating back to 1964—were scrapped when Iron Mountain was selected to be a sectional center under the zip code system," Hart said. "It soon became obvious that a $280,000 remodeling job could not meet the space needs of a postoffice that would be serving soon 140 other post offices in the Upper Peninsula."

Current plans call for additional interior room as well as parking, loading and maneuvering space at an estimated cost of $844,000.

The project will increase the interior space by 3,000 square feet; the workroom area by 5,000 square feet; the loading platform space from 350 square feet to 2,500 square feet and parking and maneuvering areas from 1,200 to 14,000 square feet. In addition, the heating plant will be upgraded and the interior of the building modernized.

"This project will insure better, more prompt mail delivery to almost all of the people living in the Upper Peninsula," Hart said. "It will certainly enable the Iron Mountain postal workers to operate even more effectively as one of the 552 sectional centers in the United States."

The present postoffice building was constructed in 1938. The expansion project will be developed by the General Services Administration.

Nearly two million tourists visit the White House each year. In the first years of the Lyndon B. Johnson Administration, tourists numbered well over four million—more than the entire population of the United States when George Washington took office.

Why We Work

Walter Reuther's announcement that the United Auto Workers will seek a guaranteed annual wage this year and strike the auto plants unless they get one marks 1967 as another milestone year in labor's progress.

The last big one was the pension drive. The situation which has brought the UAW's demand and others like it is a phenomenon that has grown out of our national abundance and affluence. We can, by the use of machines, produce such a flood of goods today that the plenty puts us into a new world, the like of which has no parallel in history.

Dr. Walter A. Weisskopf, an economist who heads his department at Roosevelt University in Chicago, described the psychology of abundance in a paper on the Abundant Society published by the Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions. It expresses his concern about the radical change in ideas and attitudes which has grown out of the belief that we can have an economy of abundance with most if not all goods and services produced without human power.

Poverty and abundance, he reminds us, are relative, and rest on comparison with the standards of living of others. Only after emergence of the modern industrial society did comparisons between poor and rich and the possibility of climbing up the income scale lead to our present condemnation of poverty and our worship of abundance.

For centuries most of mankind was mainly concerned with the need for bread, the lowest level of need. The competitive, free, self-regulating market was probably the best way to satisfy these needs, but its success has raised the question of a different allocation system.

The abundance which we have reached has to be interpreted, says Dr. Weisskopf as only partial abundance to satisfy the lowest needs, the needs that can be satisfied by automation, robots and computers. These needs being satisfied, other higher needs will arise and if we let machine production increase without limits we will deprive ourselves of the time and energy to satisfy the higher needs and will lead an unbalanced life. (We see this process at work when people ease off their buying and there's a national flap to get them buying at full blast again.)

Even today, before we have reached a completely automated abundance, says the economist, we are enslaved by the tyranny of goods that direct the use of our leisure. The more goods turned out by the robots, the greater will be the time and energy-consuming burden of consumption.

"We seem to forget how to live while we pursue the elusive goals of acquisition for acquisition's sake. A man works on the assembly line to earn an income and procure the means of enjoyment of life; he works in a disagreeable environment doing meaningless things and thus deprives himself of the time and energy to enjoy what he is working for."

Automated abundance is supposed to change all this because it will relieve men of the burden of work. But if we're primed to work for production of goods and maintain that only the result counts, we may break down under the burden of leisure and abundance. The solution suggested is to make play replace work in some future society.

The economists say there are some indications that we are moving out of a technical, rationalistic, utilitarian, efficiency-minded civilization and toward a civilization of play, ritual, contemplation and even of worship. We're in a period of transition which finds us fantastically efficient in technical matters and less efficient in what happens in our institutions.

While we're changing, the far out prophets are suggesting that tomorrow's poor may be obliged to consume heavily while the rich will be permitted to consume little and to devote themselves to the things that machine production can't supply to an economy of abundance, like warm, close affectionate human relations, and the satisfaction of the need for love and belonging.

One of the toughest jobs a bridge enthusiast can take on is chairmanship of the host committee at a National Tournament. The chairman works all year to get ready. Then, when the tournament starts the hours run from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Chairman for the Seattle tournament will be Evelyn Piro who has already served the league as a member of the board and co-chairman of the National Good Will Committee.

Here is a hand which Evelyn defended a few years ago. South ducked the first heart and won the continuation. There were any number of ways to play the hand. He could bang the king and see of diamonds and if that failed to drop the queen he could go after the club suit. Or he could play his king of diamonds and then finesse dummy's jack.

Michigan Churches Back Tax Reform

EAST LANSING. — Pro-tem leaders meeting here reaffirmed their support for a total reform of the state's tax structure. "We believe that the present combination of a good financial position and the public interest affords an excellent opportunity to develop a sound fiscal program to replace much of the hastily drawn tax measures enacted in periods of budgetary crisis," said Dr. Wendell Bassett, executive director of the Michigan Council of Churches, quoting from a statement on "Christian Principles and Michigan Tax Policy" adopted by his Board.

The Council approaches the problems of taxation in the spirit of Christian stewardship, he said. "Christians understand government to have an important place in the Providence of God, in meeting His purposes and human needs. Thus Christians are concerned both that adequate structures of good government be established and maintained to meet these purposes and needs, and that the costs of such government be met and that they be met as fairly as possible."

A special committee of laymen and clergy worked diligently over many months and studied the major Michigan tax studies of recent years before preparing the text of the statement released today. It contains a section on Criteria for Taxation, which includes four principles: Adequacy, Equity, Allocation, and Stewardship.

Another section evaluates Michigan taxes as: not sufficiently flexible, and inequitable in terms of its distribution of the tax load among all sectors of the society. A final section contains five recommendations, the first of which states: "We believe that a state personal and corporate income tax should be seriously considered as one part of the total tax overhaul."

The unique view of Michigan taxes held by the Council was stressed by Dr. Bassett. "We recall that certain purposes formerly served by the church are in our society today administered by the state. Our tax dollar provides for us education, safety and community protection, roads and highways, mental health care and other services to those in need."

Thus the payment of taxes levied through the democratic process to meet the genuine needs of the people should be regarded as an accepted civic privilege." He asserted that this does not eliminate the necessity for honest criticism, but places on all citizens the responsibility to work for such change as will improve tax policies and develop the best possible tax system.

"Christian stewardship" he continued, "requires a willingness on the part of those who have to share generously with those in less fortunate circumstances." The Council expects that there will be understandable and sincere differences of opinion on specific aspects of tax reform, however, it urges all churchmen and women to examine their attitudes and make their decisions as objectively as possible after obtaining all the necessary information.

With reference to tax expenditures the Council of Churches statement says, "We believe that the extent to which all tax money is spent wisely and in the spirit of good stewardship depends upon an informed and active citizen interest and participation in government."

"OK"

Williams decided he did not need that air conditioning system for his office after all. But the manufacturer insisted: "You have already confirmed the order."

"It is true that I marked an 'OK' on the order form," conceded Williams. "But that is not legally binding. 'OK' is just an abbreviation. Not formal enough for a written contract."

Nevertheless, in a court test, the judge held Williams bound by his agreement. The judge said that, if "OK" is not elegant English, its meaning is clear — and clarity is what counts.

By and large, the law takes a tolerant view of abbreviations. For the purpose of language, whether formal or informal, is communication. If the abbreviated form succeeds in that purpose, then the law is usually satisfied.

Thus: a receipt by a bank president was held valid, even though he designated himself as "pres."

a promissory note signed words of Douglas MacArthur, "W. G. S." was held valid, because it was clear whom the initials stood for;

and "3/7/54" was held a sufficient substitute for March 7, 1954, in establishing the date of a transaction.

What about nicknames? They too, are generally acceptable if there is no doubt of identity.

For instance, a bequest to "my dear Joe" was upheld when there was only a single Joe whom the deceased could possibly have meant. "Jack" has been held an acceptable substitute for John, and "Geo." for George.

But a short form that leaves room for doubt can be costly. "Emma" was held too different to pass for Emily, and so was "May" for Mary.

In one case, a man who sold a truck used a three-letter abbreviation on the bill of sale to identify the model. But he failed to add the model year. The buyer later sued him, successfully, on the ground that he had not been properly informed as to what model he was getting.

Writing down the year in the first place, instead of just the abbreviation, would have taken the seller about three seconds. The litigation took three years.

Birth Control Is Big Problem For Roman Catholics

NEW YORK (AP) — The "most pressing" problem confronting Roman Catholics in this country is birth control, says Newsweek magazine.

In announcing the results of a survey Sunday night, the magazine said the interviews disclosed that seven out of 10 Catholics want the church to lift its ban on artificial contraception. According to the poll, conducted by Louis Harris & Associates, one Roman Catholic in three uses a birth control pill or mechanical contraceptive.

The survey, prepared for the March 20 issue, also finds that 59 per cent support the Church in its stand against abortion. However, an equal number would approve the practice for a mother of young children if her life were endangered by another pregnancy.

Half the laity oppose the Church on divorce, and 69 per cent want annulments allowing remarriage for the innocent party to a divorce.

Forty-eight per cent felt priests should be allowed to marry, but only 41 per cent approved the eating of meat on Friday.

Fifty-eight per cent of those interviewed considered the Mass the most meaningful experience afforded by their religion, and 67 per cent applauded the changes made in the liturgy recently. For example, the substitution of English for Latin during most of the Mass.

STATIONED at Oceana Naval Base, Va., Rodney J. Beauchamp, E-3, expects to be assigned to sea duty soon. He is the son of Mrs. Mary Beauchamp of 803 1st Ave. S. and recently spent a 15-day leave at home. He graduated from the Escanaba High School in 1965 and entered the U.S. Navy in August of that year.

BATTLE CREEK (AP) — The Fort Custer Job Corps Center will observe a "Salute to Communities Week" March 26-April 2. Ruppe Opposes Road Cutbacks

WASHINGTON — Congressman Phil Ruppe today expressed strong opposition to the cutbacks in the Federal share of the highway construction program announced by the President last November. In testimony before the special Subcommittee on Federal-Aid Highway Programs, Ruppe said that many of the cuts were untimely and should be restored immediately. Over $1.1 billion in federal funds were held back, bringing some highway programs to a virtual standstill.

"The cuts varied only slightly in percentage from area to area, state to state. There are, however, areas in which the Federal Government is simultaneously trying to prime the economy, and it is grossly inconsistent that these dampening cuts should extend to these areas," Ruppe stated.

In Northern Michigan alone, seven major road construction projects amounting to nearly $13 million were indefinitely delayed. In terms of jobs, some 350,000 man-hours were lost.

"The freeze on federal money in Northern Michigan seriously affects an already burdensome employment problem, and it comes at a time when the area is reeling from one of the harshest, road-ruining winters in years."

CD Directors To Meet Here

The Upper Peninsula Civil Defense Directors Association will hold its annual spring meeting in the Delta County building beginning at 10 a. m. Thursday, March 23.

Included on the agenda are discussions on the Radio Amateur Emergency Communications System and briefings on new procedures in event of natural or nuclear disasters.

Robert Marshall of Sault Ste. Marie is president of the association.

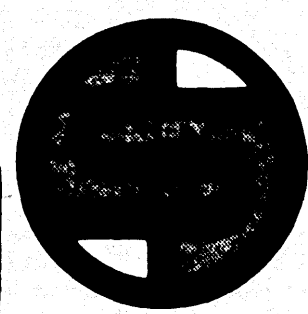

Seismograph Is Moved, College Ground Too Shaky

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) — The ground at the University of North Carolina is so shaky that the department of geology is moving its seismograph out of town to the peace and quiet of nearby farm country.

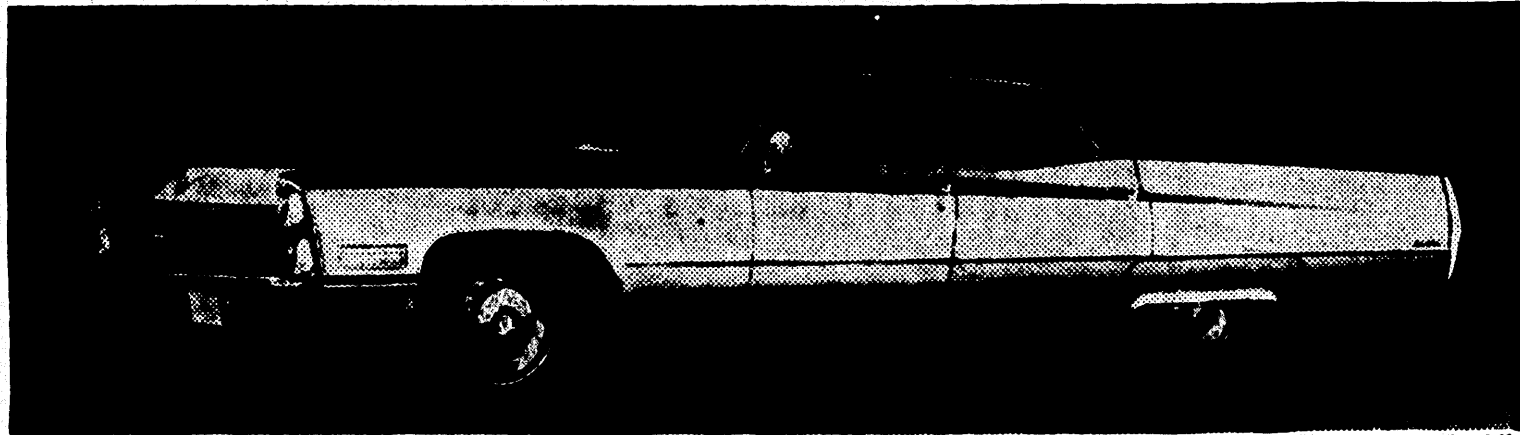

University geologists hope the instrument will be able then to settle down and do its job — detecting earthquakes.

Chapel Hill is no more turbulent than any other college town. But geologists say construction work and street traffic have given the seismograph the jitters recently.

Beatification Of Baraga To Open Tribunal

The first formal session of the tribunal hearing the case for the beatification of Frederick Baraga, first Bishop of Marquette, is scheduled for 11 a.m. Wednesday in the Catholic Diocese of Marquette's chancery building in Marquette.

The process for the Cause of Bishop Baraga is to be opened in solemn ceremony. A decree issued by the Most Rev. Bishop Thomas L. Noa, seventh successor of Bishop Baraga, names the members of the ecclesiastical tribunal, or court, and directs that the "trial" of Bishop Baraga proceed.

The court will have three judges, a promoter of the faith — more popularly known as the "devil's advocate" and notaries. It is the function of the court to hear the case proposing Baraga's sanctity in the process looking toward his sainthood. The court will accept evidence and hear witnesses proposed by the postulator.

Bishop Noa is to preside at the opening session.

Members of the Tribunal include: Presiding Judge, Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph Dunleavy; Associate Judges, Rt. Rev. Msgr. Arnold Casanova and Rev. Fr. T. Lester Bourgeois; Promoter of the Faith, Rt. Rev. Msgr. Robert Chisholm; Vice-Promoter, Rev. Fr. Dominic Zadra; Notaries, Rev. Frs. Vincent Ouellette and Terry Villaire.

Rt. Rev. Msgr. Edmund Szoka, postulator, and his assistant, Rev. Fr. Charles Strelick, are to present the formal petition to hear the case.

Priests Ask Cause

In January, 1857, the priests of the diocese asked Bishop Noa to take formal steps to begin the Cause of Bishop Baraga, petitioning: "We find that our people, grateful beyond telling for the divine blessings brought them through Bishop Baraga, are eager to pay him greater honor and gladly and prayerfully acclaim him, should our Holy Mother the Church approve, as one of Heaven's saints."

Bishop Noa accepted the petition and took the first formal step of the Cause when he reaffirmed the appointment of Msgr. Joseph L. Zyd as postulator. Later, when Msgr. Zyd went to Rome, for duties at the North American College, Bishop Noa appointed Msgr. Szoka as postulator.

The postulator has to ask such questions as: Is there evidence to prove that Bishop Baraga had, during life and at death, a reputation for sanctity? Can it be shown that his life was heroically virtuous? Are his writings without blame? To answer these and other questions, the Historical Commission was first appointed in 1952.

Bishop Baraga died in 1868. From then until 1882, several writers had studied his life, and left a vivid, but incomplete picture of Bishop Baraga.

Form Association

Enthusiasts in the 1920's made the home of Joseph Gregorich their rally point. To intensify research and spread knowledge the Bishop Baraga Association was formed.

In the past 10 years sources of information in Europe have been opened. Crucially essential documents found in the archives of European missionary societies have been microfilmed. Most have been translated, classified, and fitted into the sketch of Baraga's life.

The next step, to follow official opening of the tribunal, is the presentation of articles — a series of brief statements which the postulator intends to prove.

Witnesses will be asked whether they agree with the articles, or wish to deny change, or question them.

The Sacred Congregation in Rome will study the evidence and reach a decision, but the ultimate decision on the heroic sanctity of Bishop Baraga is reserved to the Church.

CHILDREN OF THE von Trapp family, raised in a strict military existence by their Navy-oriented father, Capt. George von Trapp, break loose in song under the direction of Maria Rainer, the governess played by Chris Johnson, in the "Sound of Music." In this scene the children gather in Maria's bedroom during a thundershower, singing loudly to overcome the sound of thunder. The play is being presented at Escanaba Area High School. 'Sound Of Music' Sounds Excellent

In four years of musical plays, Escanaba Area High School has developed a tradition of excellence.

First it was "Oklahoma." Then "South Pacific" and last year "King and I."

Monday night the high school opened its performance of "Sound of Music" and, as usual, the sound was excellent.

Chris Johnson, a junior in the lead role of Maria Rainer, was superb as the young Catholic postulate who was sent to the Austrian home of Capt. George von Trapp to be the governess for his seven children.

So were Sue Fletcher, a sophomore singing the difficult role of Mother Abbess, senior Don Nyquist as Capt. von Trapp, junior Carol Paulson as Elsa Schraeder, the rich widow, and Brian Bender as the numerous Max Detweiler.

And the von Trapp children—Kathy Williams, Rod Johnson, Diane Coplan, Robert Jennings, Juanita Hardy, Carolyn Appel and Amy Lindley—were wonderful.

In fact, the only real difficulties came off stage. The opening scene, and one other, were marred by failure of an electronic sound system, which first produced only a long hum and then a crackling blast of inconsistently loud tones. There were also problems backstage with scenery handled noisily and somewhat erratic timing with curtains.

It was opening night, however, and some of these prob-

Memorial Plaque For Vandenberg Unveiling In April

WASHINGTON (AP) — A bronze plaque honoring the late Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg, R-Mich., will be unveiled in the Capitol next month.

Sen. Robert P. Griffin, R-Mich., in announcing this, said that while a room in the Senate wing of the Capitol has been designated as the Vandenberg Room since 1961, a memorial plaque has never been placed in the room.

The unveiling will be at a luncheon in the Vandenberg Room at noon Wednesday, April 5. It will also mark the 39th anniversary of Vandenberg's appointment to the Senate, which occurred on March 31, 1928.

Griffin said guests at the luncheon would include current members of the Senate who served with Vandenberg, former Michigan senators and members of the late senator's family.

Crafts Council Asks EDA Funds

Upper Peninsula Crafts Council meeting at the Northwoods Supper Club, Marquette on Saturday, were told by Paul Harkonen of UPCA that he would personally take the request for an EDA grant of $30,000 for a technical assistance program for U. P. handicrafting to Washington soon.

The project would provide a survey to catalogue the producing craftsmen in the Upper Peninsula, and an action program to train craftsmen, and to discover markets for their products. The program would run for two years. It has been under discussion and study by the Crafts Council for several years and it has enlisted the aid of the Upper Peninsula Committee For Area Progress to implement it.

The Economic Development Administration is the agency being approached for a grant of federal funds to finance the study and assistance program. Council members are optimistic about EDA approval of the project.

The Crafts Council also discussed plans for the program for the 8th annual Upper Peninsula Crafts and Native Industries Exhibit and Conference to be held at the Memorial Union at Michigan Tech, Houghton, Saturday, April 29.

Harkonen also discussed a new directory of Upper Peninsula craftsmen and presented a dummy format for the publication. The Crafts Council hopes to print the directory in sufficient numbers to stock the State Highway Department tourist information centers, hotels, motels, chambers of commerce and gift shops of the Upper Peninsula.

Marvin Zehnder, of the Art Department of Northern Michigan University, lectured on design. Northern will have an evaluating team at the Crafts Show at Houghton to judge the exhibits for the craftsmen and a demonstration and discussion on design will also be presented.

Mrs. Milton Scherer of Trout Lake, president of the Council, presided and Niron Virch of Marquette reported on the membership effort. Mrs. Eino Miller of Ahmeek reported on plans for the Crafts Show.

Powell To Dare Arrest Threat

BIMINI, Bahamas (AP) — Adam Clayton Powell, who announced plans to return to New York next Sunday, says if he is arrested the "people in Harlem" will not let him remain in jail.

He told a news conference Monday he would "walk the streets of Harlem" and deliver a Palm Sunday sermon at his Abyssinian Baptist church despite the threat of arrest on a contempt-of-court warrant. The warrant makes him liable to arrest any time he re-enters the state of New York.

A lawyer in the New York sheriff's office said, "We do not know now whether we would arrest Mr. Powell if he came into town Sunday, because arrests in civil cases are not usually made on Sundays."

Powell joined with Negro leaders in Harlem and across the country in hailing James H. Meredith's withdrawal as the Republican leaders' choice to oppose Powell in a special congressional election April 11.

House Game Bill Spells Out Cash Poacher Penalty

LANSING (AP)—A bill to ban use of .22 caliber rifles for deer hunting and to add mandatory cash penalties for poachers has passed the House and was sent to the Senate.

Also given final House approval was a measure to permit resident servicemen on furlough to obtain deer and small game licenses without charge.

A last-minute amendment favored by the State Conservation Department deleted the current provision that .22 caliber rimfire rifles can be used during deer season south of the line from Muskegon to Bay City.

The bill provided, however, that muzzle-loading flintlocks of .44 caliber or larger may be used to hunt deer in the area.

The measure also permits persons unable to walk to hunt from a standing vehicle, tightens the law regarding firearms in cars, and makes it illegal to flee from a Conservation Department patrol car.

A convicted poacher would be required to pay between $200 and $300 for each elk he illegally killed, from $101 to $200 each for deer and bear, and from $5 to $10 for other game animals and birds.

Under terms of the bill a person "shooting" deer with artificial light from a vehicle could be prosecuted if he had a firearm or bow not locked in the trunk or otherwise out of reach.

Currently, illegal hunters can escape prosecution simply by removing the bolt or ammunition clip from a rifle inside his car, said Rep. Thomas J. Anderson, D-Southgate, sponsor of the bill.

GM Operation Normal Again

DETROIT (AP) — General Motors' vast auto-building operations were back to normal Monday for the first time since a labor dispute hit its Mansfield, Ohio plant Feb. 17.

All but two of GM's 28 assembly plants were affected by shutdowns of varying length as a result of the Mansfield walk-out which cut the supply of body parts.

"Things look good today and all our people are on the job," said a GM spokesman.

The auto industry counted heavily on GM's return to full production to send the week's auto production count zooming up around the 190,000 mark this week.

Last week's output was estimated at 158,000 cars as GM plants struggled to get back to normal production in the wake of the Mansfield tieup.

With some 682,000 cars slated to be built this month, the industry faced up to the fact that its opening quarter output seemed destined to be the smallest in four years. The Jan-Feb-March total was estimated at 1,882,000 cars.

Auto companies topped the two million mark in the opening quarter of 1964-1965 and 1966 but the combination of labor problems, bad weather and a softening in the sales market slowed down assembly lines this time around.

Judge Accepts Guilty Plea

An Escanaba woman pleaded guilty to issuing a no account check and three young men were placed in probation for breaking and entering Monday in Circuit Court.

Judge Bernard H. Davidson accepted a guilty plea on the no account check charge from Patricia Mannebach, 21, of 415 1st Ave. S., after information presented by Prosecutor Nicholas Chapekis.

Her bond of $300 was continued from Municipal Court. Sentencing was set for 9:30 a. m. April 3. Maximum prison term could be two years.

Placed on probation were Paul E. Johnson, 21, of 1008 2nd Ave. N., John R. Christianson, 19, of 322 N. 11th St., and Robert S. Trombley, 19, of 1009 2nd Ave. N. All three had pleaded guilty to breaking and entering when arraigned two weeks ago.

Davidson said the three young men also were involved in incidents of malicious destruction of property in cabins they entered and imposed the following special conditions on their probationary sentences.

Johnson, who was placed on three years probation, was ordered to go to Newberry State Hospital for 60 days for psychiatric evaluation and testing. The 60-day period would apply to a 90-day term in the county jail which Davidson also imposed.

Trombley and Christianson, who were each placed on two years probation, were ordered not to drink any alcoholic beverages until they reach the age of 21 as well as each serve 60 days in jail, beginning from the dates of their arrest last month.

Each of the youths were also ordered not to associate with any of the others during their probation and to share equally in restitution for damages in the cabins once repairs had been made and the cost of repairs assessed.

Davidson warned the young men that any violation of the probationary terms could result in imposition of full sentence allowed by law, 10 years in prison.

Lottery System Would Improve Draft: Romney

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — Michigan Gov. George Romney, visiting Harvard University for a dialogue with students and faculty, says a lottery system for drafting youths would be superior to the current system.

A lottery is part of President Johnson's plans to overhaul the selective service system. To that extent, Romney said he favors Johnson's plan.

"I think there should be national standards on the draft rather than the application of different standards as determined by local boards," Romney told a news conference Monday night.

The governor said he does not advocate abolition of local draft boards.

Romney, potential candidate for Republican presidential nomination in 1968, is spending three days at Harvard as an honorary associate of the Institute of Politics in the John Fitzgerald Kennedy School of Government.

He said the Harvard faculty will not be his final source in determining whether to run for the GOP nomination.

Before the news conference, Romney discussed the draft with about 200 undergraduates in a closed meeting.

Later he said about 60 per cent of the students opposed continuing the current deferment of undergraduates and postgraduates in such essential studies as medicine and dentistry.

Woman Kills Alleged Robber

DETROIT (AP) — Grace Tocco is a grocer who never had fired a gun until Monday when she "heard a scuffle back there and I knew my father was in trouble."

Then she grabbed a .38 caliber revolver and started firing at three persons holding up the East Side Detroit grocery store run by herself and her 73-year-old father.

Fourteen-year-old Helen Davis of Detroit, fell to the floor, shot fatally in the head. Barry Tony Smith, 23, of Detroit, was injured critically by a bullet in the throat.

One bandit escaped with an estimated $300 and some money.

"I did not want to kill," said the 46-year-old Miss Tocco. "But I was frightened for my father. I saw him on the floor. I knew I had to do something quickly."

She said she was at the checkout counter when the two men and the girl entered the store. Her father, Peter, was in back sorting vegetables.

"They split up when they came in," said Miss Tocco. "That's a bad sign."

She went to the back to get some beer for one man, but she said he remained behind when she took it to the checkout counter. The woman then brought a bag of vegetables to the counter.

"Then I heard a scuffle back there and I knew my father was in trouble," she said. The man in front pulled a gun and demanded money.

"He stuck the gun in my ribs and said 'I'll shoot you.' I opened the cash register because my father was in trouble," said Miss Tocco. "I said 'Go ahead. Take it.'"

Miss Tocco said she rushed to the back and found the man holding a knife to her father's throat. She said he also had a gun.

"Then the man tried to grab me," but she got away, grabbed the pistol from behind the meat counter and fired six times.

The shooting was the seventh in the last five weeks by Detroit merchants who have armed themselves against the possibility of holdups.

Economic Issues Tripped DeGaulle

PARIS (AP) — Bread-and-butter issues were the underlying cause of the Gaullist election setback last weekend, but President Charles de Gaulle's foreign policy may have helped by making Communist candidates more acceptable to the voters.

Official returns from the second round of voting Sunday for the new National Assembly gave the Gaullists 244 seats to 241 for the combined opposition.

That is a Gaullist majority of one in the full Assembly of 487 members. But three seats remain in doubt, and the Gaullists could wind up with a margin ranging from a plus five to a minus one.

One seat, representing Bastia, on the island of Corsica, was principal speaker at testimonial affairs in 1961 and 1963. Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey was the featured speaker at a fund-raising dinner in 1965.

Among the witnesses on tap today was Ivan Sinclair, an aide to then-Vice President Johnson in 1961. Sinclair, the committee was told Monday, inquired about the purpose of the Nov. 20, 1961, testimonial at which Johnson spoke.

James P. Boyd Jr., Dodd's former administrative assistant, said when the senator learned about the inquiry he said "to tell the vice president the purpose was to raise money."

"A Gold Watch"

When Dodd was asked whether he would benefit personally, Boyd said, the senator gave these instructions: "Tell them I may be presented with a gold watch."

Dodd says he fired Boyd for misconduct and that his onetime aide, seeking revenge, turned over to columnists Drew Pearson and Jack Anderson documents stolen from his Senate office.

Dodd has filed a $2 million libel suit against Pearson and Anderson, whose columns led to the Senate panel's probe.

The stipulation entered in evidence showed that from the $100-plate dinner in Hartford in 1961, $55,915 was deposited in a bank account here in the name of Dodd and his wife, Grace.

Winter Deer Deaths Rise

The Michigan Conservation Department's roundup of information on the Upper Peninsula's deer, toughing out the most severe winter conditions in a decade or more, reports that the past week brought discovery of more dead deer and increasing evidence of starvation.

Sound Of Music Previewed By Kiwanis Club

The Kiwanians were treated to a preview of the sell-out "Sound of Music" production which opened Monday night at the Escanaba Area High School auditorium.

Conrad Beck, vocal-music director at the school, presented three of the cast members, and thumb-nailed the production. He said the sales hit a new high with a complete sell-out in only seven days, including one day in which the school was closed because of snow conditions.

Vocal renditions by Chris Johnson, Sue Fletcher and Don Nyquist highlighted the program. Miss Johnson, who plays "Marie" in the production, sang "Sound of Music," Sue Fletcher who portrays the Mother Abbess sang "Climb Every Mountain," and Don Nyquist, Capt. Von Trapp in the show sang "Edelweiss." The group was accompanied by Mrs. Helen Moore on the piano.

Beck reported that the choir from the school will perform in Cobo Hall in Detroit, and was one of only five choirs selected in the 10-state Midwest area.

President Don Wertz read letters from Kiwanis International President Dr. Glenn Reed, Jr. and from Kiwanis International Secretary Reg Merridew, complimenting the local club on its 45th anniversary.

Lt. Gov. Mel Nyquist of Marquette presented a short film, directing attention to the varied duties of Kiwanis, and highlighting its position as a community.

Defense Fights Action Before 3 Judge Panel

on that at the preliminary hearing.

He directed that the district attorney have the informant ready to face the accused.

Shaw is the only man named by Garrison as attending the meeting who still lives. Ferrie, 49, an airline pilot fired in 1961 due to arrests on morals charges, died in his apartment Feb. 22 while under investigation.

He had called the investigation a "big joke," scoffing: "They got me pegged as the getaway pilot."

His death was listed as due to natural causes — a massive cerebral hemorrhage caused when high blood pressure broke a weak brain artery.

The district attorney's staff Monday questioned Raymond Cummings, a former Dallas taxi driver who claims he once drove Oswald and Ferrie to Jack Ruby's night club in 1963. To the day of his death, Jan. 3, Ruby, contended he never knew Oswald.

The signs of starvation in the cuttings and the deer yards where the deer are tightly confined because they cannot travel in the deep snows except in tracked-down runways, include more fuzzy-faced fawns and a decline of fat in the bone marrow of deer found dead.

The Winter Severity Index of the department climbed past the 100 mark for the winter rather generally and this is the point at which deer start dying. The index measures the influences like cold, wind and deep snow with which deer must contend in winter for survival.

The Conservation Department report on deer conditions for last week, as summed up Monday included:

District 1, Baraga: Generally mild, sunny and little new snow. Temperatures -10 to 42 degrees at L'Anse, -13 to 50 at Wakefield. Snow 3.1 feet at Bergland and 1.4 at Ewen, average 2 feet. Deer confined to yards and cuttings but ranging on compacted snow in some areas. Physical condition deteriorating. More fuzzy-faced (starving) fawns observed. Unconfirmed reports of deer starvation at Skanee and Kanton. Winter severity index 98.2 at Baraga and 140 at Wakefield.

District 2, Crystal Falls: First half cold and clear, second half mild and clear. Temperatures -16 to 54. Snow 1.6 to 1.8 feet. Heavy crust except in southern Menominee County and tight yarding except in southern Menominee County. Concentrated almost wholly in cuttings and eating starvation foods like balsam, spruce and alder, even in southern Menominee County.

Fawn killed by predator had only 2 per cent fat when normal is in 70-80 range. Ten carcasses found on crust had been dead for some time and were probably predator kills as bone marrow was in good condition except for one. Winter Severity Index 5.25 for week, bringing cumulative winter index to 97.5.

District 3, Escanaba: Cold early part of week, changing to mild; snow melting and settling. Temperature -10 to 48 degrees. Snow depth 1.1 feet at Ensign and 3 feet at Chatham; average 1.9 feet. Deer tightly yarded and conditions continue critical with more reports of deer deaths.

Four deer autopsied. One was killed by a car, one fawn (fat in bone marrow 40 to 50 per cent) death cause unidentified, one fawn found starved at Landing Camp yard north of Northland, and one adult doe found dead of exposure with patches of bare skin.

Winter Severity Index for week added 7 points to make a total of 108.1. Deer deaths reported at Arnold.

District 4, Newberry: Cold nights and sunny days. Temperatures -30 to 46. Snow depths 1.6 feet at Cedarville and 3.2 feet at Grand Marais. Deer restricted to packed trails in yards. First starvation deaths in McMillan yard, 3 deer about March 8. Winter Severity Index for week 6.8, total 109.8.

Paisano Club Seeks Members

The 1967 renewal campaign for memberships in the Paisano Club of Upper Michigan gets underway at the end of March. Mrs. Florence Altobello, Ishpeming, secretary, says 898 renewals are being sought among the members in the 9 U.P. counties represented on the roster.

Two county chapters, Marquette and Iron-Dickinson, are formally established and Gogebic County will form its chapter in the spring. It is expected that this chapter will host the 1967 assembly.

Implementation of the decisions made at the second annual convocation of the Club in Caspian last fall is going forward. Two agents have been named to gather records from Italian fraternal societies that will provide research material for a study of the contribution made by Italo-Americans to the development of the Upper Peninsula. Daniel Bonetti of Stambaugh and Anthony Vicario of Ishpeming are engaged in this work.

Vicario is doing post-graduate work under the direction of Dr. Vita Perrone, Northern Michigan University, with this project in mind. He is also setting up a series of interviews with immigrants in the Ishpeming, Copper Country and Iron County areas. This is being done by tape-recorder and will provide a tape library of material for future students of the subject. A scholarship will be funded at Northern Michigan University for this project.

The Paisano Club was established in 1964 as a cultural club aiming at commemorating, preserving and highlighting the contribution of the Italian immigrant and his American-born children to the growth of the Peninsula; to commemorate this contribution by establishing the Loan Fund and staging an annual Paisano Day in U.P. communities.

Membership is open to all who have Italian blood.

Women's Activities

By HELOISE CRUSE

Dear Heloise:

I wonder if other women who sew, realize how many ideas they can get from mail order catalogs?

We all have favorite patterns—that make good-looking, comfortable clothes—but we don't want half a dozen skirts, etc., made just alike.

As you study the clothes in a catalog, you may find a novel-shaped pocket, or one with fringe (made by raveling out the bottom of the pocket material), or perhaps a couple of tabs inserted under the waistband with mock buttonholes at the ends and pretty buttons on hem.

Instead of a straight hem, why not one with points all around the bottom of the skirt—sort of a harlequin effect?

Once you really start looking at the ready-made clothes, you'll find dozens of little ideas which are easy to copy, and which will give your clothes that professional touch.

You'll be able to use that much-liked pattern over and over, and no one will ever guess because of the "special" changes you made.

Doris

Wow! What a great idea! I've said it before and I'll say it again. It's ingenious women like Doris that are the backbone of all families.

Heloise

Dear Heloise:

May I contribute something I found for keeping my children's shoes straight in the closet?

I just clip the pairs together with snap clothespins and never have to rummage around looking for a mate.

I haven't shelf space and I don't have money for shoe valets.

Linda Kephart

Dear Heloise:

If every homemaker would sit down and plan her menus for an entire week, she will have more nutritional meals, much less repetition, and save $333 on her budget.

I know, because I've been doing it for years.

Nadine

Dear Heloise:

Here is what I do if the keys on my typewriter become clogged or smudged.

I pour a small amount of rubbing alcohol on a soft cloth and rub over the keys gently. This will clean the keys very nicely.

B. W.

And if you will put a blotter in the roller backwards and type real fast while these keys are still moist, you'll really be surprised how clean they'll be.

Heloise

Dear Heloise:

I find if I glue small wooden knobs onto the flat lids of canister sets, the tops are easy to lift off.

It sure saves lots of broken fingernails.

Mae Ribero

Dear Heloise:

This is the neat way I use plastic pill bottles while traveling.

I put stamps, shampoo, detergent, stain remover, powdered bubble bath, etc., in them. I label them with sticky seals.

When I travel I use only small amounts, so why take a big bottle or jar?

Real space-savers.

Carol

Dear Heloise:

Our teen-age daughter (who has a single bed) wanted to be able to have a girl friend spend the night with her occasionally. There was no place for her friend to sleep—and we didn't feel we could afford to buy another bed.

Her father found an old, smooth door (which had been scrapped), bought ready-to-use legs and put them on the corners. Then we put a foam rubber mattress on it.

I made a darling slipcover for it and when the bed is not in use for sleeping, it makes a very attractive sofa for lounging.

Joan Broan

Dear Heloise:

When you have cooked prunes and end up with "no juice," as I so often do, try adding some orange juice.

Pineapple and apricot juice are also good.

Easter Hats Are Bright And Light

WHEN EASTER COMES, a hat is a most desirable piece of feminine trappings. It puts the finishing touch on any ensemble. Highlights of Easter finery will include the perky, back-of-the-head roller (upper left) with its face-framing band of flowers. Vivid tones of gold and mango project the simplicity of design in the broad-brim jungle print hat (upper right). A most flattering silhouette (lower left) is the square-brim cloche of oversized flowers. And typical of this spring's return to femininity is the alabaster straw ripple brim (lower right) with its wrap-around of matching chiffon.

Rock

Out-of-town friends and relatives attending funeral services for Alph Norden on March 4 were: Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Pellinen of Ishpeming; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ackerman, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Norden, Dean and Marcia, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Norden, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Turunen, Sue, Chris, and Dwan and Larry Johnson, William Norden, Sandra Lehto, Susie Laine, Barbara Norden, all of Waukegan, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. James Carlson, Jack and Dale of Kenosha, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Norden of Cages Lake, Ill.; and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Mieski of Gladstone.

Oliver Norlund entered the Veteran's Hospital in Wood, Wis., last week.

Nancy Weldum attended the Delta County Junior Leader meeting at Garden Saturday afternoon.

Funeral services were held March 8, for Mike Seppanen, 80, at Lake Worth, Fla. He was a former Rock resident.

Mrs. Martha Johnson was admitted to St. Francis Hospital last week.

NEW YORK (NEA)—Even in chignon take the form of the girl who goes hatless all year-round would not be seen outdoors without her chapeau on Easter Sunday.

The story of this year's Easter bonnet is told in bright colors and light and airy materials. Flowers, chiffon, tissue-weight silks, Panama straws and airy crocheted straws are among the favorites.

You'll have your chance to flutter those lashes (real or store-bought) under your hat brim on that special Sunday in March. Brims take on every shape with yeast and baked in 9 by from off-the-face rollers, large 5 by 3 inch loaf pans, are usually baked in a hot (400 degrees) oven for 40 minutes.

The ruled box above is a one-inch ad. It measures one column wide by one inch deep. It costs advertisers $1.40 or less, depending on volume per week. It looks kinda lonesome by itself. But look at it this way.

So you're really buying more than 10,000 inches, which at 168 inches a page would be some 58 pages of printed newsprint.

Just imagine the cost of reaching all those Daily Press families by post-card. It would amount to more than $400.00 just for the postage. But the Daily Press does it for $1.40 (or less) per inch.

Call 786-2021 and let a Daily Press representative show you how a little BIG inch can wake up sales for you.

Regardless of what happens to the Ewen Bulldogs in the state tournament this week, their coach will have one of the greatest career records in Upper Peninsula history. Rudy Perhela, native of Hurley and graduate of Superior State, is in his first and last year of coaching. He took the Ewen job this season only as a favor to a friend in the school's administrative department to fill a vacancy. He has no intention to continue in the profession after this season.

Three of the top scorers in the Upper Peninsula will lead their teams into state tournament quarterfinal action this week. Top U. P. gunner left in the state race is Terry Conrad, the 6 foot 9 inch center from Ewen who has tipped in 545 points in 22 starts. Al Inkala, a 6 foot 5 inch senior from Wakefield, has tallied 493 points to pace the Cardinals to their 21 straight triumphs. Pat Miller, Menominee's talented 6 foot 3 inch junior, has totaled 423 points in 20 games.

Tournament director C. V. (Red) Money made more enemies than friends at the Northern fieldhouse Saturday afternoon by overselling the capacity of the building. Hundreds of fans who bought tickets to watch the Wakefield-L'Anse game couldn't even find standing room. The spectators were literally hanging from the rafters.

The word at Northern is that a new fieldhouse will be built soon with a capacity of 15,000. That would just about handle the throngs of prep game fans who flock to the regionals in growing numbers each year. If it is built soon enough. And if the new building isn't a reality in the very near future, it will already be too small by the time it is erected.

Menominee had the youngest team in the Upper Peninsula Class B regionals this season. Coach Bob Krysiak started two sophomores, a junior and two seniors in the championship game against Ishpeming. Ishpeming started four seniors and a junior, as did Newberry. Ironwood had five seniors in its opening lineup.

In the Class C regional field, Coach Gus Lord's Stephenson Eagles were the youngest outfit this season with three juniors and two seniors. Wakefield came through with the U. P. crown with three seniors and two juniors in the starting lineup, the same as Houghton. L'Anse loses four starters from this year's team, with only Dean Kost returning.

Republic was the veteran team in Class D with all five starters in their last year of school. Coach Don Hill used two seniors, two juniors and a sophomore in Hermansville's starting five, the same as the champion Ewen Bulldogs. Dollar Bay's starting unit was made up entirely of underclassmen — three juniors and two sophomores.

Cards Halt Tiger String

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — The St. Louis Cardinals chastised Detroit Monday 1-0, handing the Tigers their first defeat of the infant exhibition baseball season.

Before then, the Tigers had won three straight games by big margins.

But their luck ran out in the ninth inning Monday.

With the game scoreless, Tigers pitcher Fred Gladding walked Mike Shannon, Dave Ricketts sent Shannon to third with a single and Cards pitcher Phil Gagliano won his own game when he lined a single to left field driving Shannon home.

Three young St. Louis right-handers held the Tigers to three scattered singles and only once did Detroit come close to scoring.

That was in the seventh. But Gates Brown and Jake Wood struck out with the bases loaded.

Tigers pitchers Mickey Lolich and Johnny Podres combined efforts with Gladding allowing the Cards only hits.

Former All-Star shortstop Dick McAuliffe performed like an All-Star at second base.

McAuliffe turned a base hit into a force out when he streaked behind second and flipped the ball backhanded to the shortstop.

Bing, Miles Not Enough

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A classy scoring performance by Dave Bing and Eddie Miles isn't enough for the Detroit Pistons.

Bing and Miles hit the nets for 90 points — Bing getting 33—but the Pistons fell before the San Francisco Warriors Monday night 135-109.

The Warriors had too many guns, led by Rick Barry's 29 points, and had run off with the game as early as the third quarter with a 90-65 lead.

Detroit lost a chance to get out of a fourth place tie with Chicago in the Western Division of the National Basketball League. Chicago fell to St. Louis 133-117.

The St. Louis Hawks overcame a 94-85 fourth quarter Boston lead and beat the Celtics 122-

122 on Bob Bridges' tip-in with two seconds to play. The Hawks now are one game short of clinching second place in the Western Division.

Bridges' tip-in capped a Hawk spurt of seven straight points in the winning rally. Lou Hudson led St. Louis with 24 points followed by Bridges with 23. Bailey Howell was high for Boston with 24.

Oscar Robertson hit 14 of 18 shots from the field and all 15 of his free throws for 43 points as Cincinnati moved into a second place tie with New York in the Eastern Division. Bob Boozer led Chicago with 29.

The division champion Warriors took care of the Pistons in a hurry.

San Francisco, with Barry keen at the basket, Al Attles brilliant as a ball handler, and Nate Thurmond controlling the backboards, opened up a 61-49 lead at the half and stretched it further in the second half. Both coaches put in reserves when the score hit 90-65.

The Warriors' Jeff Mullins required medical attention from two bumps. He got five stitches for an eye cut in the second quarter and more stitches when he caught an elbow in the jaw in the fourth quarter.

Land O'Lakes Name Of New U.P. League

The Upper Peninsula's newest high school athletic conference has been named the Land O' Lakes League, officials announced today.

Gordy LeDuc of Marquette Baraga was elected president of the conference. Other officers named were Walter Haglund, president-elect; Peter Zenti of Gwinn, secretary; George McCormick of Gwinn, treasurer.

Thundering Herd Sets NIT Scoring Record, Salukis Win Opener

NEW YORK (AP) — Basketball is a labor of love for Southern Illinois' skillful Salukis, but jumping George Stone and the Thundering Herd prefer to shoot first — and let the good times roll.

"When I'm hot, I just keep pumping. I'm not bashful," an exultant Stone exclaimed Monday night after his 46-point barrage led Marshall's hurrying Herd to a record-breaking 119-98 triumph over Nebraska in the National Invitation Tournament.

"The keys for us have been balance and hard work," said Coach Jack Hartman, whose Salukis preceded Marshall into the NIT semifinals by wearing down Duke 72-63 in the first game of the Madison Square Garden doubleheader.

Marshall and Southern Illinois play the respective winners of tonight's Providence-Marquette and New Mexico-Rutgers pairings in Thursday night's semis.

Stone, an angular 6-foot-7 jump-shooter whose accuracy appears to improve as he moves farther away from the hoop, put together the high-point game thus far in the tourney as Marshall shattered Bradley's 10-year-old NIT record of 116 points.

The junior forward, limited to 15 points in Marshall's 70-68 overtime victory over Villanova last Thursday night, poured in 26 in the first half against the stunned Cornhuskers, hitting on 12 of 19 shots from the floor. He finished with 20-for-38 and a school point record.

rugged Ralph Johnson and Little All-America Walt Frazier led Southern Illinois past the Blue Devils for its 16th straight victory and 22nd in 24 starts. Southern Illinois, the nation's No. 1 college division team, has won seven of nine games against major foes.

"We've played some of the best teams in the country and we thought we'd have a good chance here," said Frazier, the 6-3 floor general who contributed 17 points, nine rebounds and six assists to the SIU attack. "Some teams have one star. We have five players on the court—no stars. We have desire and momentum. We could go all the way."

Noon Deadline For Pro Cagers

NEW YORK (AP) — The first strike in history against a major league professional sports organization appeared in the offing today as the Players' Association and the National Basketball Association owners faced each other across a long-range bargaining table.

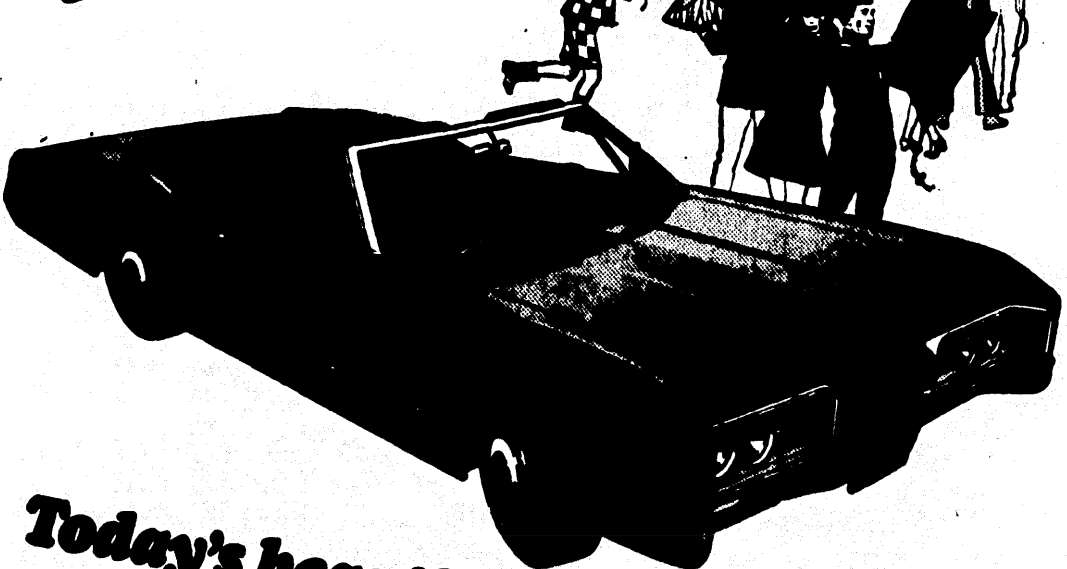

On the surface, the deadline was noon today for the players to confirm they would participate in the postseason playoffs beginning March 25. If they did not so confirm, said NBA Commissioner Walter Kennedy in a public statement, the playoffs would not be held and the $200,000 players' pool would vanish.

Under the surface, there were rumors from well-informed sources that the deadline would be extended past noon. The sources declined to be quoted directly or identified.

At issue is the player pension plan. At present, 10-year players are assured of $200 a month 30 years after they retire. The players ask $600. More importantly, the players want it to be retroactive for players now in the league.

Baltimore Gets Initial Pick In Combined Draft

NEW YORK (AP) — Some 445 college seniors went into the "hat" today to be picked in the first combined draft of the National and American football leagues.

But this type of picking isn't done at random. A lot of thought goes into it.

And because it is serious business, the 17 rounds were expected to last at least two days.

Baltimore was to be the first of the 25 teams to pick, with the Minnesota Vikings to follow.

Baltimore was picking in place of the new New Orleans Saints and Minnesota had the New York Giants' choice because of trade.

Since Baltimore got the first pick by trading quarterback Gary Cuozzo to New Orleans, the Colts need a backup quarterback for Johnny Unitas.

Therefore, the Colts were likely to choose Steve Spurrier of Florida, the Heisman Trophy winner, or Bob Griese of Purdue, the Big Ten's Most Valuable Player.

Minnesota reportedly washed back Nick Eddy, by Detroit; considering defensive end Bubba Smith of Michigan State and halfback Harry Jones of Arkansas.

Others expected to be picked early included linebackers George Webster of Michigan State and Jim Lynch of Notre Dame, fullback Ray McDonald of Idaho, defensive tackle Lloyd Phillips of Arkansas, and defensive backs Tom Beyer of Miami of Florida and John Charles of Purdue.

New Orleans, the newest NFL franchise, was to pick the most players, 35, followed by Green Bay, 24, and Baltimore, Buffalo, Houston and Philadelphia, 21 each.

New Orleans originally was to get 37 choices, but the Saints traded away two of them, including the No. 1 pick to Baltimore. World Champion Green Bay got its high number through trades.

Eighty-five of the top college players of 1966 were drafted as futures, or redshirts, in 1965.

Some of these already have signed, such as Notre Dame

Misquoted Says Mills On Slush Fund Story

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP) — Dr. David D. Henry and the University of Illinois Board of Trustees huddle today to decide what action will be taken in a final Big Ten appeal concerning the $21,000 slush fund scandal.

Dr. Henry, president of the university, is expected to get approval from the board in an attempt to "show cause" why three coaches involved in the scandal should not be fired.

Big Ten athletic directors and faculty representatives have ruled the university must show cause why its membership shouldn't be suspended or terminated if the three coaches are not fired.

The three are football Coach Pete Elliott, basketball Coach Harry Combes and Combes assistant, Howard Braun. Dr. Henry has held the Big Ten's demands are "too harsh."

Illinois has until Friday to serve notice that it seeks an appeal, and a date, mutually convenient for both groups, will be set for a meeting, probably next week.

If the faculty representatives still demand that Illinois fire the coaches or get out of the Big Ten, Dr. Henry and the trustees again will meet to make their final decision.

In addition to demanding the dismissal of the coaches, the faculty men recently ruled five Illinois athletes permanently ineligible and three temporarily ineligible.

Several other athletes either left school or were cleared of charges involving illegal aid ranging from $15 to $50 a month.

Meanwhile, former athletic director Doug Mills, who resigned Dec. 1, couple of weeks before the scandal broke, denied he had made statements that Dr. Henry had knowledge of the slush fund.

Mills said his remarks to a Chicago columnist Sunday were misinterpreted. Mills was quoted as saying Dr. Henry "knew as much about the fund as I."

Dr. Henry branded the statements attributed to Mills "a total untruth."

Newspaper Want Ads are a big sell! One billion, twenty-one million was spent on classified ads last year... more than for all magazine advertising combined and more than 300 million more than radio advertising.

Sports In Brief

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Lions Monday signed a lineman from the University of Southern California, 230-pound Dennis Moore.

Moore was drafted last year as a Redshirt. He has played both offensive and defensive spots in the line. The 6-5 player was picked in the 14th round and was also drafted by Kansas City.

DETROIT (AP)—For the first time since the Pistons have been in Detroit, a rookie has topped the club in scoring.

Even though another week remains in the National Basketball Association season, Dave Bing's 19.7 average is comfortably ahead of the No. 2 scorer, Dave DeBusschere at 18.5.

Bing joins a group which includes George Yardley, Gene Shue, Bailey Howe, Terry Dischinger and Eddie Miles.

Scouts Plan Pasty Sale

Senior Girls Scouts of Troop 4 made plans for their Pasty Sale to be held Saturday March 18, and worked on their Girls Scout Week Poster which is displayed in Vera's Variety Store, when they met last Wednesday at the James T. Jones School.

The girls, under the direction of their leader, Mrs. Clifford Mineau, are planning a trip to Chicago in the spring and proceeds of the Pasty Sale will be used to help defray costs of the trip.

Pasties may be ordered by calling Mrs. Mineau at 428-8014 this week and deliveries will be made on Saturday.

Red Troops Kill China Peasants

HONG KONG (AP) — Several thousand people were killed or wounded in rural areas of Kwangtung Province when Communist troops opened fire on workers and peasants who refused to go back to work, a Hong Kong newspaper reported.

The Chinese-language New Life Evening Post said travelers arriving from Kwangtung, across the border from Hong Kong, reported bloody clashes between army troops and workers and farmers in Fatsan, Po An, Nang Hai and Shun Ta.

The most severe clashes, the paper said, occurred in Fatsan and Nang Hai where workers and farmers refused to go back to "the production line."

One arrival said "bodies were scattered along the Fatsan highway. The casualties could run into thousands."

The paper said 300,000 troops are now in Kwangtung Province, and many people in Canton expect the number to be doubled shortly to "put down the rebellious workers and peasants."

"Many workers at Fatsan shouted 'go home, northern troops!'"

The paper said it was impossible to get a complete story on the fighting but the scanty reports brought out by visitors from Red China indicated the clashes were serious.

It was the second recent report of serious disturbances in Fatsan.

Briefly Told

Warren F. Brown, Perkins, was ticketed by State Police Monday for defective muffler.

The Women's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church will present a program at the church at 7:30 p.m. Thursday. A film on Assam will be shown and a musical program presented. Christine Ott, Christine Erickson and Doris Holmstrom will sing in a trio and Mrs. Albert Mattson and Mrs. Harold Berg will sing a duet. Hostess is Mrs. Vernon Peterson. The public is invited.

GLADSTONE City Approves Paving Petition

The City Commission approved a petition for paving Michigan Ave. from 2nd to 4th Streets Monday night at the City Hall.

A public hearing on the proposal will be held at the next regular meeting, April 10.

Office space in the old Buckeye office at the Industrial Park will be leased on a yearly basis to the State Highway Department, the Commission decided. City Manager H. J. Henriksen and City Attorney Clair Hoehn will negotiate rental fees.

Henriksen reported that coal for the power plant and boats to deliver it will be in short supply this year and asked for the commission's approval to order early. He said the increased output at the power plant will require purchase of more than the normal one boat-load this year.

The city manager was instructed to advertise for bids on the coal and for a police car.

Mayor Frank Stupak will issue resolutions commending Delta Chapter, Order of DeMolay, in observance of National DeMolay Week, and to the Girl Scouts for their 50th anniversary. A letter will also be sent to Alan Briggs, commending him for his service as city attorney. Briggs is now prosecuting attorney in Ontonagon County.

Henriksen said he had received information from Williams & Works, Grand Rapids, relative to the cost of sanitary sewers on N. 17th St. Residents will be notified of cost of individual frontage as soon as the exact amount of assessable property has been determined, Henriksen said.

He said people would have the figures before the next meeting of the commission and the date for a public hearing on the proposal will be scheduled at that time.

First meeting on the 1967-68 budget will be held next Monday, March 20.

Rev. Brostrom Lenten Speaker

The Rev. David Brostrom, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, Escanaba, will be the guest speaker at the Lenten Service an Evangelical Covenant Church at 7:30 p. m. today. The Rev. Loren Anderson will conduct the service.

The speaker will talk as a witness for the Defense in the Trial of Christ-Simon Peter. He will also sing "I Walk Today Where Jesus Walked".

A regular choir rehearsal will be held following the service.
